In the meantime, globally and especially on the African continent, dynamic shifts and Changing CERTIZENS researchers presented papers. We've hosted a CERTIZENS PhD guest collectively and individually. The team itself has expanded to include five new fully-

PHOTO: UNHCR/Hélène Caux

Newsletter #9: December 2023                                                                              View in browser

Unsubscribe from this UCPH newsletter

Did someone forward this newsletter to you?

Application Deadline: 22 December 2023

certizens@teol.ku.dk

Update

Ngabeya Hassan Tegulwa

Elvis Munyoka

Biometric Update

Group on Refugee, IDP and Statelessness

Tony Roberts (editor)

Chapter in

In brief:

UNPD and Centre for Communication Governance, National Law University, Delhi

seven pillars are specified in corresponding "anchor questions" and "rights surveillance that is unlawful or violates protected human rights.

as one out of five surveillance technologies. The report is concerned with state refugees face challenges in enrolling in educational institutions without identity

Cameroon starts campaign to issue 500,000 birth certificates for children

Moine's Biometrics & Privacy: Theoretical and Practical Foundations and reinforce the EU border regime.

fund by international agencies (Interpol, the International Organization for Dreaming biometrics in Niger: The security techniques of migration control in West

Over-voting claims and other irregularities in three Nigerian State elections

ID documents.

Cameroon starts campaign to issue 90.000 digital ID numbers until 2026, for preventing fraud against

UNHCR and the Government of Ethiopia signed an MoU on 6

Senegalese civil registration system at the November 2023 was very fruitful and close attention.

vagueness' that marks the role of ethnic within each. She also unfolded the individual/legal and group-based/political

'Statelessness, Ethnicity and Registration

Scholars from the University of Yaoundé and the University of California, Berkeley, senior UNHCR representatives, and experts from the Global Group on Refugees, IDPs and Statelessness and peers.

scholars reflected on the evolution of the CERTIZENS project, as well as

Kojo Opoku Aidoo, organized the gathering with the central focus on 'Expanding

Executive Secretary of the Kaduna State Residents Identity Management Agency against the South African Department of Home Affairs.

NGO which is currently representing over 100 people with blocked ID in a lawsuit

send a link to the work and a brief description of its relevance

Over-voting claims and other irregularities in three Nigerian State elections

ID documents.

Over-voting claims and other irregularities in three Nigerian State elections

ID documents.

Over-voting claims and other irregularities in three Nigerian State elections

ID documents.

Over-voting claims and other irregularities in three Nigerian State elections

ID documents.

Over-voting claims and other irregularities in three Nigerian State elections

ID documents.