when they travel, 'arrive' at and articulate with their diverse destinations.

...and identification at their apparent point of origin, but also at what happens to them

...the persistent dynamics of older authority structures and imposed agendas within

...divergent policy decisions related to ID4D and/or alternatives in different African

...processes. Of particular interest for my project are the variations in the forms

...followed by the establishment of the UN Legal Identity Agenda, and other related

...World Bank. This has resulted in a UN Sustainable Development Goal (SDG 16.9)

...citizen certification, registration, and identification, and how these policies are

...AMANDA WENDEL MALM

...Stanford Cyber Policy Centre

...compelling report in the

...haunting of these – given the immediacy and scale of the crisis in Afghanistan – is a

...dangers – including state surveillance, exclusion and even retribution – resulting

...dimensions of citizenship in Ghana – one by

...academic articles and books addressing aspects of our collective research interests

...reveals the dire effects for ordinary Zimbabweans of extreme resource constraints

...Trust, used for claiming pensions among other things, soon to be replaced by the

...our CERTIZENS researchers – Dr Kojo Opoku Aidoo and PhD candidate Amanda

...the ID4Africa Annual General Meeting brings together stakeholders from the ...African governments, and donors to discuss the SDG goal of 'identity-for-all'.

...chairman of ID4Africa – an association which brings together ID companies,

...Online series hosted by Joseph Atick, formerly of the World Bank and now

...Launches 15 September 12[30 (GMT) (Nigeria & Rwanda); 29

...13-15 September 2021

...13 September 2021 10[00-17[00 (BST)

...details of the conference, seminar or other relevant event to:

...biometric database

...system – including its exclusions of women, older people and many other

...Away and Left to Die

...socio-economic change in Liberia. An in-depth case study on citizenship

...construction and practice in Africa's first black republic.

...might there be

...Indian state classify refugees as poor, displaced, and lower caste? Might there be

...field. This is a story of inclusion and exclusion as the state

...and practices of identification over time within two Akan chiefdoms. With recent

...my project focuses on the meanings of (local as opposed to national) citizenship

...regimes of national registration, certification and identification, in order to trace

...differentiated citizens in urban and rural spaces, along borderlands and among

...CERTIZENS Africa comprises eight research projects from researchers based in

...In brief:

...received Ghana Cards so far.

...their case to the High Court. An article in

...News Editor

...Here we present a selection of CERTIZENS-relevant issues in the press. To

...more locally, culturally and informally defined versions – there have long been

...or entitlement to belong. So for example, for an individual to be recognized as

...chiefdom, in terms of the forms of authorization of belonging and identification

...certizens@teol.ku.dk

...or book chapters, job openings, researching funding, or other opportunities.

...We encourage you to submit announcements of relevant opportunities for the